

Health Safety and Environmental Management The Compliance Consultancy

Health Safety and Environmental Management The Compliance Consultancy

Case Study

ASDA

Overview: OHS work as the Partner for ASDA on Health Safety and the Environment operating as the ASDA Department for that vital role. OHS working with the ASDA Director for Health and Safety provide the company with the Senior Health and Safety Manager, a team of Health and Safety Auditors and a dedicated office manned with Health and Safety Administrators supervised by a CRM Manager. The OHS MD and specified Technical and Business Development Consultants form part of the Project Team.

Sector: Retail

Location: Head Office Leeds – Stores Petrol Stations and Properties Nationwide including Ireland
Project duration: Ongoing (2009 – Present)

The OHS Role:

- Health and Safety Administration
- Provision of Health, Safety and Environmental Consultant on Secondment to ASDA as Deputy to Health and Safety Director
- Health and Safety Audits of Retail Development Projects
- Environmental Audits of Retail Development Projects which includes site Waste Management
- Competency Assessments of all ASDA Retail Development Contractors and Suppliers
- Ergonomics assessments of Proposed New Equipment
- Participation in ASDA Continuous Improvement Groups
- Full Health and Safety Training

Achieved Targeted Results:

OHS exceeds ASDA's specified requirements, expectations and aspirations in fulfilling the pledge to make ASDA 'an incident and injury free environment'

