

Health Safety and Environmental Management The Compliance Consultancy

Health Safety and Environmental Management The Compliance Consultancy

Case Study
George Barker

'Delivering the vision'

An incident and injury free environment for all OHS clients

Overview: OHS Ltd have been providing an individually tailored package of works to George Barker under a three year contract. George Barker manufacture and repair refrigeration units for a large number of supermarket chains. They have a Head Office based in Bradford and employ approximately 450 people both locally and nationally. They have a strong commitment towards health, safety and the environment.

Their health, safety and environmental processes are regularly audited by their Clients as part of the supply chain process. They therefore need to have a health, safety and environmental management system in place which will support them in a competitive market.

Sector: Manufacturing Location: Nationwide
Project Duration: 3 Years

The OHS Role: OHS undertook an independent audit of George Barker's documented policies and procedures and on completion of this audit developed a three year Worksafe package. The OHS Worksafe – Homesafe TM package is tailored to deliver compliance services that meet the requirements of every element of the business. Through the OHS Worksafe – Homesafe TM Package OHS undertake annual Health and Safety Audits and assist George Barker with the implementation of recommendations that result from this audit. OHS also provide a range of Occupational Hygiene services including Workplace Air Monitoring, Noise Assessments, Local Exhaust Ventilation Testing and Hand Arm Vibration Assessments. OHS also provide them with a full Asbestos Management Compliance Service which includes annual re-inspections, the production of an Action Plan, update and implementation of their Asbestos Policy and Asbestos Awareness Training.

Through the OHS Worksafe – Homesafe TM Package OHS can provide clients with a complete compliance solution. By using one provider OHS clients can rest assured that they will receive advice and support from a provider that truly understands all areas of their business.

